ADOPTED GIRL OF MORRISON TELLS STORY

Says She Lived With Recluse Since May 19 and That Her Adoption by Millionaire Was Legal.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—How Edward Morrison, eccentric millionaire whose estate is under investigation by Fed. Judge Landis' court adopted two girls of whose parentage their supposed father accused, was told on the witness stand today by one of the girls, Margaret Burnstein Morrison, 16 years old. Jacob Burnstein had testified that his wife, on her deathbed had confessed that the millionaire was the father of her and her younger sister Alice.

Margaret's testimony followed revelations indicating the aged millionaire had paid thousands of dollars to an organized gang of blackmailers that he had loaned money freely on "I. O. U.'s" of irresponsible persons and had paid huge sums for questionable amusement.

Claims Legal Adoption.
Margaret said she had been legally adopted by the millionaire. Judge Landis himself questioned the girl.

She said she had lived at the Morrison home since May 19, 1916. "Were you present at the adoption proceedings?" Landis asked. "Yes."

"What do you know about the adoption?" "I know it was my mother's wish."

"Did Mr. Morrison ever say anything to you about his property?" "No," the witness answered. "Or about plans for your future?"

"He said he would take us and give us an education," Margaret said. "No preaching service at Sunday temple Beth-El."

WOMAN KILLS GUARD OFFICER
Claims Soldier Offended Her in His Office Several Weeks Ago.

Macon, Ga., Aug. 26.—Capt. Edgar G. Sprattling of Co. F, fifth regiment, national guard of Georgia, was shot and killed in his tent at the state mobilization camp here Friday by Mrs. H. C. Adams of Atlanta. She was in the county jail Friday night where she was held on a charge of murder. Mrs. Adams asserted that Capt. Sprattling, who was a physician had offended her by attentions paid her several weeks ago while she was in his office in Atlanta for treatment.

Mrs. Adams, a woman about 30 years of age, came from her home in Atlanta today and went directly to the camp. At Capt. Sprattling's tent she asked the officer if he were Capt. Sprattling, and on being answered in the affirmative tried at him twice from a small calibre revolver, both shots taking effect.

According to Lieut. Samuel A. Kysor of F company, who seized her a moment later, she cried out as she shot the officer, "You have ruined my home."

After the shooting she became hysterical. According to information received here Mrs. Adams left her home in Atlanta shortly after her husband, who is employed at a laundry had gone to work, leaving her and the couple of small children at home. She said tonight that she had not previously told her husband of the physician's conduct. Capt. Sprattling, who was 47 years old and married was well known in medical and social circles in Atlanta. He was regarded as an expert on insanity and once was connected with the Mattewan, N. Y. asylum in that capacity.

Sandy Hook is Menaced by Red "Enemy" Fleet

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The "red" enemy fleet was within striking distance of Sandy Hook Friday night, its scouts having been sighted by the "blue" defending forces in the naval game at 11 a. m. Friday, 120 miles off Barnegat inlet.

The "red" scouts were heading west, and navy officials said Admiral Helm on the "blue" flagship, Rhode Island, was straining every resource to locate the main "red" fleet, under Admiral Mayo and the transport train that is brining hypothetical army of invasion. If the "blue" scouts were successful in gathering positive information before darkness complicated their task, it was believed Admiral Helm would make a night "attack" upon the most vulnerable of the "reds."

The position and course of "red" scouts indicate that Admiral Mayo might be making a dash for some landing point either near New York or at Delaware bay. His scouts were about equidistant between these two points when sighted.

The fact stood out sharply that despite the long line of scouts thrown out by the "blue" commander, the "red" fleet has driven to within 120 miles of the nation's most important seaport without having been intercepted.

Advices to the navy department did not disclose the whereabouts of the fifteen battleships that compose the main "red" fleet.

Even should the "red" fleet evade the battleships of the "blue" squadron, Admiral Mayo will still have an inner guard of submarines to contend with. Admiral Helm has fifteen underwater fighters massed at three main bases between Cape Hatteras and Eastport, Me. Their exact location is not known.
